An afternoon of the heart, an Estonian Experience

Saturday September 11, 2010, 2pm,

For Questions Call SWAC @ 410.543.2787

As depicted in the extraordinary film, “The Singing Revolution”, the war ravaged, oppressed Estonian people literally sang their way to freedom.

Sister Cities Association, Salisbury Wicomico Arts Council, and SWAC grant recipient “Salisbury Chamber Singers”, under the musical expertise of Director Dr. Douglas I. Smith will perform these freedom songs in the Estonian language for SALISBURY’S SISTER CITY, Tartu Estonia.

Salisbury Government, Estonian Embassy, and Salisburian attendees will send a warm greeting to Estonia by filming the performance and delivering it to the Mayor of Tartu.

Come for a taste of Estonian culture, movie excerpts, Estonian refreshments, a dramatic musical performance and American Patriotism. Sister Cities’ Mission, Global Peace Through Mutual Understanding, will be eloquently expressed as Salisbury shares the love with Tartu, Estonia.

Come to “Singing to my Sister,” an afternoon of the heart.
